SHIPPING INFORMATION

We encourage you to have UPS pack your item for the return. You have a much higher chance of having a claim resolved favorably and more quickly should it become damaged in transit than if we pack it. We will not know this charge in advance. There are no additional fees; we charge you what UPS charges us and add that to the balance due on the work.

Please check your preference:

I would like UPS to pack my item for the return using new materials _____

I would like SRS to keep my packing materials and pack my item for return _____
( an additional charge will apply if your packing materials are unusable.)

I understand that Sundog Restoration Studio (SRS) cannot accept liability for damage that may occur in return shipping, do not offer refunds for damaged items and will not do the repair/restoration over at no cost. Work that is left unpaid or not picked up after completion becomes the property of SRS. SRS will not be held liable for theft or any act of God that could further damage the items in their possession.
